DREAMLAND WILL SHOW
"VIRTUOUS WIVES" FROM
STORY BY OWEN JOHNSON
First of Anita Stewart Super Pictures
a Famous Tale of New York Married Life.

The Dreamland Theatre has contracted to show, beginning next Tuesday, Miss Anita Stewart's initial First National production "Virtuous Wives" adapted from the two million edition book of the same title by Owen Johnson.

"Virtuous Wives" is described as a truthful story of married life in New York society. According to the author, in the introduction to his story, a virtuous wife is becoming an extinct specie of femininity under present day conditions. The reason for this, as described in his novel, have been included in the screen adaptation. Miss Stewart makes her return to the American screen after an absence of several months in the role of Amy Forrester, the "only member young." As the wife of Andrew Forrester, and obsessed only with the idea of constant and uninterrupted amusement, she appears in the role of the young society matron who finally is brought to a realization that unbridled pleasure is but the ash of happiness.

Supporting Miss Stewart in "Virtuous Wives" are four stars of the present New York theatrical season. Cenwa; Tearle plays the part of Andrew Forrester, money-maker; Edwin Arden is seen in the role of Ludolph Delabarre; Mrs. DeWolf Cooper plays the part of his wife, Irma Delabarre, and William Boyd appears as Monty Bracken, social waster.

HOUDINI'S RIVAL COMING

McAlbert Mystery Show and Concert
Company Booked for Two Days
Starting Saturday and Sunday,
Dec. 13 and 14.

McAlbert, billed as "a psychic marvel rivalling the celebrated Houdini" will be at the Dreamland Theatre, Saturday and Sunday December 13 and 14.

McAlbert brings with his mystery show a concert company, headed by Miss Dorothy Van, a prima donna of exceptional accomplishments, whose company renders a program of music and classic and oriental dancing.

Coupling ingenuity with his psychic ability, McAlbert is said to work some unexplainable wonders on the stage. He is touted as a "cabinet demonstrator of extraordinary and weird power" attempting, without making any claim to answer the question which has become of public interest recently. That question is, "Can those who have passed to the Great Beyond communicate with the living?"
